WEDNESDAY, JULY 27

Screening: “‘Edited at EAI’: Restless Generation” at Electronic Arts Intermix

This screening program features four videos by women who created performances specifically for the camera. Borrowing techniques from early '70s performance artists, and combining them with an '80s distaste for consumer culture, these women looked at bodies, gender, and sex in an era when video had become more available than ever, thanks to the advent of MTV and public access television. Videos by Vanessa Beecroft, Alix Lambert, Kirsten Mosher, Alix Pearlstein, and Beverly Semmes will be screened in this program.

Electronic Arts Intermix, 535 West 22nd Street, 6:30 p.m. RSVP to info@eai.org
